THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative ndse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 160 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 40,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered) gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Barham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

THERE IS EVERY REASON to believe that this is to be an epochal day in the history of the Republic. After more than a quarter of a century of sectional strife, and four years of bitter, bloody war, there assembles, to-day, in Philadelphia, a convocation of conservative and patriotic citizens, representing every portion of this great country, and coming together with the avowed determination to rescue the Constitution from the profane grasp of the disorganizers and fanatics who have well-nigh destroyed it. Never has a body convened under more solemn auspices or with graver responsibilities. The Convention which framed the Federal Constitution was not invested with the momentousness which attends the one which, perhaps at this very moment, is inaugurating its deliberations. It was easier to start the vessel of State upon its course, when the gales were propitious, the skies serene, and all hands ready to lend a willing oar, than it is to save the vessel, when the sun and stars are obscured, the tempest high, and a large portion of the crew turbulent and mutinous,—ready, even, in their madness, to cast over board chart and compass.

To say that we look forward with profound concern to the action of this Convention would but faintly express the anxiety with which we shall watch its proceedings. We cannot believe that our high expectations as to the happy result of its consultations are to be disappointed. It would be a more melancholy illustration of our political and moral degeneracy than, even in the face of the many sad developments of the times, we are prepared to accept, in advance, to find that so many gentlemen of enlarged statesmanship and approved conservatism can meet together in fraternal council, animated by a single lofty impulse, without accomplishing the patriotic object which has assembled them together.

It is a grand spectacle,—this spontaneous rally to defend the citadel of our liberties, and preserve it alike from the insidious torch of the incendiary and the bold assaults of bad and desperate men. Heaven grant that it may be successful! and that, as witnessing the preservation of the Republic, the 14th of August, 1866, may take rank with the memorable days of History,—with the day that saw the extortion of Magna Carta from King John, and the day that saw the declaration of separation from King George!

"Another reason why the South should be immediately reinstated, is found in their steady attachment to our republican institutions.—The success of republican government under the federal Constitution has been held up—perhaps, sometimes, in too boastful a spirit—as a lesson and a model to the world. When the South had seceded, and felt at liberty to adopt any kind of government they pleased, they simply copied, article by article, and almost word for word, the Constitution of the United States. They did not adopt a different form of government; they merely formed a new association on the old model. They gave the most indubitable proof of the sincerity of their attachment to the Constitution, in adopting it as their own, at a time when their hatred of the North and repugnance to everything Northern was inflamed to the highest pitch. No State changed its State government; no State had any idea of standing alone; it was simply a question between the old Union and a new one upon the same plan. No candid man will question the faithful attachment of the whole Southern people to the republican principles transmitted to us by our fathers."

We make the foregoing extract from an able article in the New York World,—which, by the way, is one of the most sterling journals in the country,—in advocacy of the full restoration of the Southern States to all their constitutional relations. The reasoning of the World is both just and true. Since the foundation of the Government, the South has illustrated, in innumerable ways, its devotion to the principles of Republican liberty,—at periods, too, when those principles were violently assailed by fanaticism at the North.

We have frequently insisted that the South, in taking up arms and attempting to separate itself from the Union, was moved by the spirit of resistance to the aggressions of a furious and unreasoning faction, and not by any hostility to the government. The facts cited by the World demonstrate this beyond cavil. Our people always have been, and are this day, sincerely devoted to the Constitution of our fathers.

The Freedmen's Bureau at Greensboro has been in charge of an officer (Capt. Teal) who, it appears, was very popular with the citizens. He has recently been relieved from duty at his own request, and the citizens have held a meeting and passed highly complimentary resolutions in regard to the manner in which he discharged his duties. It is a pity, suggests the Charlotte Democrat, that all other Bureau officers have not shown as good sense as Capt. Teal.

OUR TELEGRAPHIC columns, this evening, present European dispatches of as late a date as yesterday. Truly, this seems miraculous.

Plan of the Radicals.

The Chicago Tribune, a very bold and able journal, well posted as to the objects and purposes of the Radicals, says:

"It seems probable that the South will not accept the mild terms offered to them in the constitutional amendment. If they do not, it will be the clear duty of the present Congress to lay the axe at the root of Andrew Johnson's Provisional Governments, and re-organize them on the basis of impartial suffrage. There will be no war of races then. Instead of it, there will be respect for law, and submission to it. General Grant knows how to establish and execute anything which the law-making power may enact without leaving any war of races in his track."

Upon this the New York Times makes the following comment: "There is no reticence or ambiguity in this. If the southern States fail to ratify the constitutional amendment which has been submitted to them, their right of self-government is to be trampled under foot, their constitutional right to regulate the suffrage annulled, and their entire machinery of government to be reconstructed according to the Radical model. This is what the Chicago Tribune threatens. And we know no journal that is better informed as to the Radical plans, or more likely to be entrusted with their promulgation.

The revolutionary measure thus indicated as a probably contingency might be discredited, if it were at variance with the tone displayed by Radical leaders since the close of the session. Unfortunately, the reverse is the fact."

All this is in consonance with the givings out of the Standard, in this city, whose Editor, since his return from Washington, seems thoroughly posted as to the designs and machinations of the Radical leaders.

PERHAPS no officer ever succeeded in rendering himself so odious and obnoxious to a community, as Gen. Terry has to the people of Virginia. His whole administration, as Department Commander, seems to have been a studied effort to oppress and misrepresent the people over whom he was unfortunately placed. His last official act was to hunt up a number of willing certifiers, and forward to Gen. Howard some fifty affidavits alleging cruel treatment of the freedmen in Virginia. He has just been relieved by Gen. Schofield, and a Richmond poet also "relieves" himself in the following strain:

Carmen and Terry.

BY HORACE MILTON, OF RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

Terry leaves us, sumus weary;
Jam nos taedet to videre,
Si vis nos with joy implore,
Terry, in hac terra tarry
Diem nary.

For thy domum long'st thou nonne?
Habes wife ant filios bonny—
Socios Afris magis ton-y?
Haste then, Terry, military,
Pedem ferre.

Forte Thaddeus may desire thee,
Sumner, et id om., admire thee;
Nuisance nobis (not to ire thee)
We can spare thee, magne Terry,
Freely—very.

Hear the Prex's proclamation,
Nos fideles to the nation,
Gone est nunc thy place et station,
Terrifier momentary,
Sine query.

Yea, thy doom est scriptum—"Mene."
Longer ne nos naso tene;
Thou hast dogged us diu, bene:
Loose us, terrible bull Terrier,
We'll be merrier.

Bid thy dulces Afros vale—
Pompey, Scipio et Sally—
Seek some back New Haven alley;
Terry quit this territory,
Con amore.

Sed verba tibi abituro:
Pay thy rent bills; et, conjuro,
Tecum take thy precious Bureau;
Terry, Turner, Blue-coat hom'nes,
Abhinc omnes!

WE RECEIVED, on Saturday last, from D. R. Goodloe, Esq., Washington, D. C., a lengthy communication, professing to be a reply to an article some timce since published in the Sentinel, arraigning that gentlemen for having signed his name, as a representative of North Carolina, to the call for a Southern Radical Convention in Philadelphia in September. Mr. Goodloe's letter would occupy several columns of our paper. But a very small portion of it is devoted to his personal vindication,—the remainder being an argument in favor of negro suffrage and the Howard amendment. We have returned Mr. Goodloe's manuscript, with the assurance that he can have such space in our columns as may be necessary for his personal defence, and that we have no objection even to publishing short and temperate articles in defence of the policy and conduct of the Radicals,—reserving, of course, the right of full Editorial criticism.

THE Standard charges us with having made a false impression in regard to the authorship of the letter, attributed to Judge Ruffin. It either ignorantly or knowingly states what is not so. We said definitely, before Mr. Holden did, that rumor attributed the letter to Judge Ruffin, and expressed our dissent from some of the positions taken in the letter. Mr. Holden charged violently upon the Judge, as if he knew that he was the author, but never said he was authorized to say he was. We have not had, at any time, nor have we now, any authority for saying that Judge Ruffin was the author of it, except the suspicions or opinions of others. Judge Ruffin has not declared, that we know of, or even admitted, its authorship; hence no one has the right to assail him. They may assail the doctrines of the letter, but not the author.

CHRONOLOGY.—The New York Watchman speaks in high terms of Col. E. G. Haywood's forthcoming work on Chronology. It says:

"We have examined the manuscript. It is a treatise at large upon the subject of Chronology and upon cognate branches of study. It will form an admirable outline of history, and furnish a vast fund of information. It is not a dry skeleton of mere facts and figures. It is an elaborate digest of all that is important upon the subject of the relation of facts to time, and many pages will be read with the interest inspired by a romance. It will be an excellent basis for historical instruction in our universities and higher schools, and a manual for literary and scholarly men in every department. We shall look with interest for the appearance of this volume, and hope that it will soon be given to the public."

RADICAL NEWSPAPERS and radical Congressmen have lately been seized with a strange respect for the opinions of the late venerable Chief Justice Taney, if we may judge by the frequency with which they quote his decision in the Dorr case, in Rhode Island, and the vehemence manifested by them in insisting that it is correct. Had they shown a little of this respect for him, and the decisions of the Supreme Court, while he was living, and for a few years before his death, we might have averted the war which has desolated the nation and begotten a spirit of lawlessness which spurns all restraint.

We have not the decision in the Dorr case, but, if we remember rightly, Judge Taney did declare, either as the determining point in the case, or as one strengthening others, that in cases where two organizations in a State claim to be the lawful State government, the one which Congress recognizes as such must be accepted as the rightful one. The radicals now so construe this decision as to invest Congress with authority to abolish any State government, provided conspirators can be found who will organize a bogus, and assert it to be the genuine, State government. This was the very plan proposed in the radical Congressional caucus by Boutwell, of Massachusetts, in relation to the proceedings of the late pretended Constitutional Convention in Louisiana.

Judge Taney did not assert any such nonsense as that attributed to him, that Congress may, where a lawful government exists, abolish that Government by the recognition of a revolutionary attempt to overthrow it. If it were true that any spurious, villainous organization, which Congress may choose to treat as a State Government, is really one, the validity of all our State Governments depends on the judgment of Congress. It can decide that any association of outlaws or thieves are the lawful authorities of a State, if they will assert a claim of the kind.

MR. HOLDEN pretends still to be in favor of President's Johnson's policy, but insists, for the hundredth time, that the Southern people will not carry it out. We have defied him to show wherein, yet he reiterates the charge without proof. President Johnson says they have carried it out, and has so proclaimed to the world, yet Mr. Holden denies it. He now pretends that we accepts the Howard amendment, because he can do no better. But is it consistent in him to accept and recommend the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution, which changes entirely the character of the Government and repudiates all his life-long principles? We do not believe the Howard amendment will be adopted by the States, but suppose we knew it would be, is it the part of a people, who have any principles, any manhood, left, to ignore those principles, and, like the whipped cur, kiss the hand that smites? The Southern people will accept that as they did the surrender, when forced to do so, and not before; and a Southern press acts unworthily of its position, which advises the people to vote for and sanction a measure, which they loathe and abominate, simply because they are the weaker party!

WE did not receive the rumor that Mr. Holden had said, privately, that this State would be under a Provisional Government in five months. It came to us as a declaration made on the streets. He says that it is not true that he said that he would be Provisional Governor. Very well, we give him the benefit of the denial. The Editor is very tender about the retailing of conversations of his own, but not so in retailing other people's!

MR. HOLDEN says there is no negro suffrage in the Howard amendment, and calls upon us to publish it. We have already published and commented on it, and shall do so again. The Howard amendment is designed to force negro suffrage upon the South, as every child must see, who considers its language in connection with the enabling acts of Congress, which are to come afterwards to carry out the Constitutional amendment.

"For our part, we know neither Whig nor Democrat."—Standard.

True for once. The Whigs discarded you twenty-five years ago, and the Democrats have been sick and tired of you for more than six years. We believe both of those old fraternities know you too well, to confide in any thing you say.

The Oswego Times, New York, reports the brutal whipping of a lad about twelve years of age by his father, a man named Euphrates Lake, of that city. Lake is a seventh day Baptist, and whipped his son in a shocking manner because he did not want to work on Sunday, when told to do so by his father. It is said that a short time ago the same man turned out of doors his daughter, fifteen years old, because she would not work on Sunday.

Where is Harper's Journal of Civil-lies-ation? Give us another wood cut, by all means.

THE WAY THE MONEY GOES.—The death of Senator Jim Lane, of Kansas, caused a vacancy in the United States Senate, and one Ross, editor of a before unheard of, and still unknown, newspaper in the Western wilderness, was named to supply the place. On receiving his appointment, he posted to Washington in great fear that Congress would adjourn before his arrival. He got to the capital on the 25th. ult., and before well rid of the dust of travel was sworn in. On the 28th., Congress adjourned, and thus Mr. Ross was Senator for only three days. But mark the sequel: it is said that for these three days of Senatorial service Mr. Ross will receive for pay and mileage the sum of six thousand dollars! Thus he gets two thousand dollars a day for being in at the adjournment. Good thing for Ross.

A special dispatch from Washington to the Baltimore Sun, dated the 10th, says:

Up to 10 o'clock this evening no official information had been received at the Executive mansion of the inauguration of the Texas officers. Immediately on receipt of this information the President will direct the Provisional Governor to turn over the State government to the duly elected officers, and that being done, a peace proclamation will be issued declaring peace throughout the land, and that the habeas corpus is no longer suspended in any of the States.

The Testimony of a Candid Man.

"Having received a letter from a man of the South who was once in Congress, and whom I knew very well—I refer to Mr. Curry, of Alabama, and who is now the president of one of the colleges in that State—and he having stated in his letter to me that the South was completely caricatured in some of the testimony which was given before the Reconstruction Committee in Washington, and having made that statement on the authority of Mr. Curry in the Senate of the United States, it drew from a gentleman in the State of New York, who may be known to some of you present, and whose name I will not withhold—I refer to Colonel Tarbell—a letter, an extract from which I will now read. Speaking of the condition of the South, he says:

"Allow me to say that I have been in the States of Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi since December last; that I was a Whig and am a Republican, and hence looked closely at Southern society.

"I have no hesitation in denouncing the reports in the Northern newspapers of outrages upon the blacks and upon Northern settlers as utter fabrications or malicious exaggerations.—I travelled by rail, by water, on horseback, on foot, in company, and alone—by day and by night—totally unarmed except a pocket-knife, purposely, openly, and frankly declaring to every one I was a 'Yankee and a black Republican.' I met others who had travelled on horseback from Florida to Mississippi, who like me were Republicans—and I do assure you I would sooner travel throughout the South than the North, so far as personal safety is concerned.

"To go from here to the South is like passing out of the work of the week into the Sabbath—all is quiet—all are trying to work for a living—for all are on a level and compelled to work with their own hands. Yankee land does not present a more active, industrious scene than the whole South, nor could Yankees display more energy, integrity, and recuperative power in standing on nothing.

"To say that the South is 'caricatured' in the North does not express it. She is slandered, villified, wickedly, infamously belied. Were the South to come North she would not recognize herself—if she did, she would disown herself. Were the North to go South, she would be astonished at the misrepresentations and falsehoods, and with the cruelly unjust and erroneous sentiments prevailing here."

Passing over many facts which he mentioned, I send the closing paragraph:

"I assure you, sir, that this terrific public opinion that is driving the North to the support of the startling and dangerous centralization of power in Congress is based upon falsehood and misrepresentation.

"As I expect to be judged by my Maker on the great day of final judgment, I state to you solemnly, that from extensive travels in these States, from conversation with all classes and colors, and after listening to hundreds, I believe, before high Heaven, that all these newspaper reports of hatred to and outrages upon blacks by whites, and of the molestation of northern settlers, are baseless, wicked fabrications, concocted and reported expressly to crush this fearful public opinion which should sustain the change of the fundamental principles of the Constitution."

The radicals in Missouri are bent upon making themselves forever infamous. Governor Fletcher, who seems to be a sort of cross between Brownlow, of Tennessee, and Morton, of Indiana, joining the venom of the one to the fanaticism of the other, is doing all that lies in his power, by the exaction of test oaths and by a system of persecution worthy of the French Jacobins, to maintain the ascendency of his faction. To what an extent he is disposed to carry his high-handed measures may be gathered from the partial returns of the docket of the Circuit Court of a single county. The Palmyra Spectator, of Friday last, says:

"The regular term of our Circuit Court, Judge Parrison on the bench, commenced its session on Monday last. The criminal docket is quite large, and differs widely from the dockets of former years. Fourteen ministers were indicted for preaching the Gospel. Their cases, we learn, were laid over to the next February term. The docket runs somewhat after this fashion: Rev. James S. Green, preaching the Gospel; John Smith, selling whiskey without a license; Rev. W. M. Newland, preaching the Gospel without a license; James Brown, selling whiskey on Sunday; Rev. J. H. Luther, preaching the Gospel; Judy Dudley, keeping a bawdy house; Rev. Henry Louthan, preaching the Gospel, and so on."

It may be quite possible that the fourteen clergymen who have been indicted in Marion County Court for the heinous crime of preaching the Gospel, are not exactly sandwiched on the record between the low class of offenders in the order in which the above paragraph places them. But that more than one of them should have been taken from their houses at midnight, like common thieves and house-breakers; carried, in some instances, many miles distant from their families and thust into a jail to herd with criminals of every grade, until bailed out by their friends and neighbors, are incidents that would stain the annals of any country.

But when we consider that these outrages are sanctioned in a Republic that professes to uphold and defend liberty of conscience as one of the cardinal principles upon which its claims to superiority over all other forms of government are founded, they ought to consign to everlasting infamy a political party that unites to the bloodthirstiness of an Alva the vindictiveness of the savage.

The tax upon dogs for the year ending March, 1866, amounted in Great Britain to a million dollars, an increase of fifty thousand dollars over the previous year.

Hon. A. H. STEPHENS.—The Lynchburg Virginian says that Hon A. H. Stephens and Gen. John B. Gordon were to pass through Lynchburg on Saturday en route for the Johnson Philadelphia Convention.

The Albany Argus says of the Tribune's "martyr" Dostie: As a barber, we believe the 'doctor' did a passing business in Saratoga county. As a statesman, in Louisiana, he utterly failed.

AN AGED BRIDE.—A wedding took place last week near Cambridge, Illinois. The bridegroom was thirty-two years old, and the bride was eighty-five. The papers out that way wish them all imaginable prosperity, but think it unnecessary to wish the bride a long life.

A negro, recently formally petitioned the Probate Court of Tallahatchie county, Alabama, to be allowed to sell himself into slavery. He says there are too many responsibilities surrounding him, and that he is dissatisfied with his present condition. The Probate Court could do nothing for him.

"The Mean Whites of the South."

"Among the Guerillas," is the title of a book just published in New York, and written by one "Edmund Kirke." The book is complimented by William Cullen Bryant, the poet and New York Evening Post editor. The following extract will suffice to show the character of the publication, and the sort of "stuff" upon which the fanatics, of whom Greeley and Bryant are representative men, are fed. In all the ranges of literature there is not a more infamous libel. Human malice and mendacity can no further go. This is the morsel.

THE "MEAN WHITES."

They are totally destitute of morals and religion, and live in open violation of almost all laws, human and Divine. Fathers cohabit with daughters, brothers with sisters, and husbands sell or barter away their wives just as they would their jack-knives or their rusty rifles.—Many of them never heard of the Bible, and few know there is a world beyond this, and that the lives we live here determine the lives we shall enter upon hereafter. On all this broad earth there is not a class of white people so ignorant and so degraded as they are: and all their ignorance and degradation has been brought about by the "chivalry," who have deprived them of schools, and kept them in mental and moral darkness, that they might make them servile tools and pliant instruments of their reckless and wicked ambition.

"The class is not large, and it is well it is not; for, if it were, the thorough reconstruction and regeneration of the South would be things which the youngest of you might not live to see, so far away would it be in the very dim distance. It is impossible to estimate their number with any exactness, there being no sufficient data on which to found a reckoning; but the opinion of those best informed on the subject, and long observation in all parts of the South, have led me to the conclusion that it cannot exceed a million."

The Long and Short of it.

There are a few cardinal points, which, if kept in sight, will keep the mind right on the New Orleans riot.

1. A few pocketless Northern men, living mainly on Government spoils, and earnest to hold on, colluded to join with the negroes, and thus to perpetuate their domination. Their plan was Black enfranchisement and White disfranchisement.

2. Their beginning was a mock Constitutional Convention, dead two years ago, revised to re-work now.

3. The body guard of this Convention was negroes, got up by these few whites, and this body guard put itself into collision with the whites, and a natural explosion took place.

4. The real issue was—shall a very few white men, not residents of the soil, combine with the Blacks, to disfranchise the great body of the Whites, and thus create a Black White oligarchy to rule the State.

5. The agency, mis-called a "Convention," was a rebellion. The Convention died off two years ago, after establishing a State Constitution, and the regular government was working under that Constitution.

The President interfered for self-government, popular government, legal government, and if your please, White man's government. Was he not right?—N. Y. Express.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Anson county, on the 24th ult., by Rev. T. A. Boone, P. N. SMITH, Esq., to Miss SUE L. COLE.

DIED,

At his residence, near Beaufort, N. C., on the 6th. of August, 1866, of cancer, Gen. THOMAS MARSHALL, aged 76 years.

The public and private character of the deceased, so well known and honored by his county, deserves more than an ordinary notice.

From 1816 to 1829, he filled the office of sheriff with great credit to himself and satisfaction to the people. In 1830, he was elected to the House of Commons; in 1832, to the Senate, and again returned to the House of Commons in 1835-36, and 42, and served his constituents with marked ability and fidelity. The General Assembly made him a General in the militia.—He received an appointment under the Administration of Gov. Reid, and, as illustrative of the views of public economy he conscientiously entertained, he presented a bill of $50 against the State, where he could have charged hundreds. The writer has often heard Gov. Reid mention this as a remarkable instance of stern integrity and devotion to principle.—Indeed throughout his life he was controlled in all his public acts by the highest motives of honor and the strictest regard for the maintenance of justice and right. In the formation of his character, were blended those elements of moral strength and beauty which constitute the crowning and ennobling virtues of true manhood.

To-day a sorrowing family gather around his grave to pay the last fond tribute of love to all that is mortal of a kind husband and father. In this sad hour of death, affection would fain offer its sympathies to the bereaved, but consolation from on high can alone soothe bleeding hearts that refused to be divorced from the deep melancholy of the last eventful scene. A brighter world has opened upon his extended vision, and the soul now triumphant "can a darkening universe defy." His intrinsic goodness has found its reward in the mansions of eternal rest. The rugged paths of life so thickly scattered with thorns, and so fearfully overcast with troubles, have closed forever, as celestial glories irradiate from the Great Throne around which the sainted throng sound continual and unbroken hosannas. The frosts of years fell gently upon him, and death only relieved him from the sufferings of an incurable disease that he might live immortal. V.

In Anson Co., on the 26th. day of July, in the 24th. year of her age, SARAH MELVINA POLK, wife of John A. Polk, and only daughter of H. Sturdivant, deceased.

As other parties are making Cotton Gins without the improvements which have given these Machines their superiority and unexampled success, and are offering them to the public with nearly the same representations, this notice is to prevent the imposition and disappointments of purchasers who desire the well established and approved Machines manufactured only by us.

THE UNIVERSAL COTTON GIN AND CONDENSER of Horace L. Emery's Patent, may be readily distinguished by their having the PICKER ROLL SUPPORTER suspended midway in the hopper over the saws, for supporting and moving the COTTON ROLL and preventing all possibility of choking or bridging of Cotton in the hopper from any cause. Also their air supply openings to an air chamber over the Brush Cylinder, and the words "HORACE L. EMERY'S PATENT" and Albany Agricultural Works, in raised and stencilled letters upon different parts of the Machine.

The Holston Female College, at Ashville, has 80 pupils and others are coming in.

BLACKBERRIES.—We are informed by Mr. J. A. Turrentine, Conductor on the N. C. Railroad, that he had on his train, on Thursday night, one hundred and sixty one barrels of dried blackberries, shipped from High Point to New York!

IREDELL CO.—J. H. Stevenson, Esq., J. A. Rosebro, Esq., Col. Chas. R. Jones, and Dr. R. H. Parks are announced as candidates for the Commons in Iredell Co. A. M. Bogle, Esq., is announced as a candidate for the Senate.

THE Ashville News urges wool growers to purchase the Texel sheep or Monton Flandrins. The Texel yields a fleece of ten pounds. The live ram weighs 200 lbs., and the ewe 145 to 175 lbs.

The work has been resumed on the Cincinnatti, Cumberland Gap and Charleston Rail Road at Morristown, Tenn.

The Asheville News proposes to revive the Buncombe County Agricultural Society. We hope every County in the State will do so, and that the State Agricultural Society will be revived also.

A GOLD nugget, weighing 6½ pounds, worth $1,400, was recently found in the Gold Mine Branch, in Union County, in this State.

THE EDITOR of the Salisbury Old North State will be absent for a few days, and, during his absence, that paper will publish Gov. Graham's address on the late Hon. G. E. Badger.

MAJ. WEIGEL, in charge of the Freedman's Bureau at Newbern, has been relieved, and Col. S. Moore, late at Salisbury, takes his place.—From what we have heard, the change will be quite a relief to the people of that section.

MURDER.—Some negroes entered the store of Mr. J. H. Cutchin, at Whitaker's turn-out on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, on the 9th inst., and brutally murdered him by striking him on the head with a hammer. After the deed was accomplished the door was locked, and no discovery of the affair was made until morning. The object seems to have been plunder, as several hundred dollars were stolen. A negro by the name of Virgil is now under arrest in Weldon, charged with being implicated in this horrible tragedy.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Weldon State that a very unfortunate accident occurred at Nag's Head, in this State, during last week. Clayton Richardson and Alonzo Greaves, who were doing business for Mr. Jacobs, Proprietor of the Alexina House, at the above named place, were sleeping in the same room in the store-house. During the night Greaves, in his sleep, got up out of his bed, exclaiming "robbers! robbers!" and, seizing Mr. Richardson, who was asleep, by the throat, choked him vigorously. Mr. Richardson cried out, "Alonzo is that you?" and, receiving no answer, he raised his pistol and fired its contents at the head of the friend, but supposed robber. The ball took effect, and Mr. Greaves fell insensible to the floor, and is now in a critical condition, his life being almost despaired of.

We are pleased to hear that Rev. J. M. Everhart and another gentleman (name not remembered) have bought the Major J. W. Woodfin's mountain farm, with a view of going into the dairy business theron. This is an encouraging sign, and we wish the gentlemen great success. —Asheville News.

"QUEEN EMMA."—The New Yorkers are doing their best to entertain the Queen of the Sandwich Islands, now in that city. She was waited on by many of the leading gentlemen and ladies of the city, on Thursday, including Commodore Ringgold, of the navy, Horace Greeley, Rev. Drs. Dix, of Trinity Church, and Vinton, and others. During the day she visited St. Luke's Hospital and other similar institutions. It is said she will set out on Monday for Washington, and on her return spend a few days in Baltimore.

The Memorial Exercises at Jones' Springs.

WARRENTON, N. C. Aug. 11.

DEAR SENTINEL:—Having noticed your call, I will endeavor to give you a brief account of the ceremonies that took place at Jones' Springs on the 8th. inst.

At about 9½ o'clock in the morning, people began to pour into the hotel yard from all sections, until the crowd became very large. Gens. Custis and Fitzhugh Lee, having arrived at the Springs early in the day, most of our citizens sought an introduction to them through the Committee. These gentlemen occupied the parlor of the hotel for that purpose, and the greetings which they met from the citizens of the old North State were of such a nature as alone could come from brothers who had suffered in the same cause.

At eleven o'clock, the vast concourse began to move in procession from the hotel to the burial ground, which movement consumed nearly a half an hour. On the ground, by those familiar with gatherings, it was estimated that there were from 1,400 to 1,600 persons present.

The Rev. Dr. Hodges opened the ceremonies by reading an appropriate selection from the Prayer Book, and then offering up prayer to the Most High. The Doctor then introduced James Barron Hope, Esq., Editor of the Norfolk Day Book, the Poet of the occasion, who arose and delivered one of the most elegant, feeling and soul-stirring poems that ever fell upon any ear, occupying about thirty minutes in its delivery. The impression upon the vast auditory present was grave indeed. Never were people's sympathies so enchained and held spell-bound for so long a period; and not a word nor a gesture of the poet was lost by that crowd of eager listeners. In using my weak language to convey my own ideas of Mr. Hope's magnificent effort, I know I can convey to your readers but a faint conception of the reality. The audience were charmed, indeed; and I felt that, to have been present on the occasion, was truly to have enjoyed an oasis in the dull tramp through the desert of life.

After the poem, the Rev. Mr. Soloman closed the ceremonies by prayer, and the procession made its way back to the Hotel.

In justice to mine host of the Springs, I cannot omit to make mention of the reception which he gave the large crowd of gentlemen and ladies who lingered at the hotel for the balance of the day. Major Hope, of the Yarborough hotel, in your city, certainly deserves well of the public as a caterer. I consider him a master of his business in that line, and his splendid table and polite and courteous assistants and attentive servants bear me out in the assertion.

By the way, we were much gratified by a conversation with the Major, in which he assured us that, on our next visit to the Capital of our State, we would find his hotel newly trigged off with spanking new furniture and other late and improved "fixins." Major Hope "knows how to keep a hotel" truly, for he keeps up with the times. Success to him, the Yarborough, and the Sentinel. Don't you say so? A.

DEATH OF A. G. FOSTER, ESQ.—It is with feelings of sadness and deep regret that we record the death of this distinguished gentleman, a tribute of respect to whose memory we published in our last. It was our good fortune to have known Mr. Foster long and well, and we can truly say that we have never known a more honest and upright man in our life. Few men possessed a clearer head, and none a more honest heart. We have often thought that he was the most talented man to whom his native county ever gave birth. Bred to the law, he soon rose to eminence at the bar, and if he had not retired early he would undoubtedly have reached the highest distinction of the profession. In personal character he was open, frank, sincere and manly, and none would sooner have scorned a mean action. He was a placable enemy and a strong friend—a high toned and chivalrous gentleman. Faults he probably had, and who of us has not. But, in the language of Hayly, in memory of Henry the IV, of France, we would say,

[Old North State.

A SOFT ANSWER TURNETH AWAY WRATH.—It is said that recently, in a sleeping car coming from the West, a man in one of the berths became greatly annoyed by the crying of an infant and the efforts of its father to pacify it.—The irate individual at last shouted out: "What the devil is the matter with that young one?" And soon again: "Where is the mother of that child, that she is not here to pacify it?" At this the poor gentleman in charge of the child stepped up to the berth, and said: "Sir, the mother of that child is in her coffin in the baggage car!" The grumbler immediately arose and compelled the father to retire to his berth, and from that time until morning took the little orphan under his own care.

Despatches from Memphis state that a regiment of colored troops in Helena, Ark., had engaged in a general riot at that place on Tuesday, firing on the white citizens, and swearing they would take possession of the town.

General John A. Logan, who was nominated for Congress from the State of Illinois at large by the Republican State Convention, recently, at Springfield, delivered a very lengthy speech on the occasion. He called the President all sorts of names, and laid down a new plan of restoration policy. He opposed the repeal of the "iron-clad test-oath," and favored the disfranchisement of all rebel officials, and a representation basis on the actual voting population.

LONDON, Aug. 11.

Napoleon demands from Prussia the rectification of the French frontier by its extension to the Rhine, as it was marked prior to its disturbance in 1814. The military and naval preparations, which are being carried on in France, induce the belief that the Emperor will make war, if his demand is not complied with. The demand has caused great excitement in Berlin.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GENTLEMAN.—The late Judge Talfourd, in a case tried at the Bristol (England) Assizes, shortly before his sudden death, thus defined the character of a gentleman:

The evidence proved that the defendant, while in the theatre, had said to the plaintiff, "Do not speak to me; I am a gentleman, and you are a tradesman."

"Gentleman," said the learned judge, "is a term which does not apply to any station. The man of rank who deports himself with dignity and candor, and the tradesman who discharges the duties of life with honor and integrity, are alike entitled to it; nay the humblest artisan, who fulfills the obligations cast upon him with virtue and honor, is more entitled to the name of gentleman than the man who could indulge in offensive and ribald remarks, however high his station."

BATTLE'S DIGEST.

The Digest of all the reported law cases in North Carolina, from the earliest period to the present year, is now nearly ready for the binder. It will consist of about 1200 pages, including the table of cases, &c.—The book has been so arranged that it can be bound in one volume, or in two, according to the preference of the purchaser.

The cost of publication has been greater than was expected, in consequence of the book being larger, and it is ascertained that the author cannot afford to charge less than $15 for the volume or volumes of the Law, and $10 for the Equity volume to be paid on or before the delivery of the volumes respectively. The work, though containing much more matter, will cost but little more in currency, than was formerly charged in gold or its equivalent for the aggregate of Iredell's and Jones's Digest.

When a purchaser wants an interleaved copy, he will so state in his order for the book. There will be an additional price of one dollar for such copy.

We have consented to act as agents for Judge Battle in the sale of the Digest, and now solicit immediate orders, accompanied with directions as to how the book shall be bound, &c.

The printing of the Equity volume will be commenced without delay.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMELTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

BUCKEYE SULKY PLOW.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON.
